

WHEN IT HURTS

The Life of Job

JOB: THE GOD OF THE STORMS

Job 38-41

- 1) God is bigger than you think.
- 2) You are smaller than you think.
- 3) God doesn't always answer why, but He will always give Himself.
- 4) God invites us to trust Him because of who He is.

MY APPLICATION

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family, friends, or small group.

1. What situations or circumstances in life cause you to have a bigger view of yourself and a smaller view of God?
2. What does it practically look like to live a life that is God-centered verses human-centered?
3. Share a time in your life when God hasn't answered your why questions. What was that like for you? What emotions did you experience? How did you process or how are you processing it?
4. How does Job respond to God when God answers Job God's way rather than Job's way? (Look at Job 40:1-5)
5. Why can we trust God even when we don't understand?
6. What is one anchor of truth about God that you need to hold onto?

MEMORY VERSE

When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place, what is mankind that you are mindful of them, human beings that you care for them.
