

MY APPLICATION

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family, friends, or small group.

1. What are your fears about dying? How does your understanding of heaven from the Bible help you with your fears?
2. Who are you looking forward to seeing in heaven? Why is that person important to you?
3. What are some of the reasons that keep you from deepening your relationships now? Do you think those reasons will be important to you a few decades from now? Will those reasons be important to you in heaven?
4. As you are learning about the afterlife, how are your thoughts and feelings about God changing? What are you looking forward to most about being with God?
