Discussion Questions:

1. What stuck out to you from today's lecture?
2. Let's take a look at the homework. What were some key take-aways for you?
3. How does considering Christ's identity, actions and reward challenge you to live like him?
4. Review the three principles given: know who you are, give up who you are, and look forward to who you will be. Which do you find the most challenging? In what area (identity, action, reward) do you need to take a step to have the same attitude of Christ?
5. What kinds of things have you done or are you doing to be transformed (or work out your salvation)?
6. When are you most likely to complain? What could it look like to praise God in those moments?
7. What might it look like to "shine like stars" in the world around you?
