Meet Your Teachers

Heather Van Stavern

Heather is a gifted communicator who is passionate about obeying the will of God and teaching His word. She and her husband Brad have been married 19 years and have three children: Jade (15), Chance (12), and Dax (10). They have been members of Hill Country Bible Church since 2001, and in 2009 helped launch HCBC's Steiner Ranch campus.

A former public high school speech/communication and theatre teacher, Heather will take the truths of the Bible and apply it to your life in a friendly, sincere, "I want to hear more" style. She considers it a privilege to speak into the lives of women, guiding them toward knowing and loving the God who made and adores them.

Appreciates: loyal friends, family time, the mountains, hard work, and queso

Could live without: olives, too much small talk, creepy-crawling things, and doing laundry

Kim Gardiner

Kim Gardiner is a stay at home mom of two sweet girls, Hailey (9) and Emma (7). She has been married to the love of her life, Eric, for over 15 years. Kim has a passion to see women making Kingdom decisions, dreaming Kingdom dreams and living Kingdom lives.

She serves in the Women's Ministry at Hill Country Bible Church in leadership development and teaching. She also loves discipling women. She is a graduate of the Moody Bible Institute with a BA in Bible/Theology.

Appreciates: good coffee, good friends and a good nap

Could live without: exercise, early mornings and being rushed
