

The Unexpected Rescue Esther 8-10

God always keeps His promises. (Esther 8-10)

God is always working out His plan in the world and in our lives through His divine providence day by day.

Timeless Truth:

You can be confident and assured that God is working out His purposes and promises in your life and in the world. You have to consider, what's your part?

Discussion Questions:

How does the joy of the Jews' rescue in Esther 8-10 help us rejoice at the greater and deeper rescue that God has given us through Jesus?

How can the assurance that God always keeps His promises impact the way we live, especially when nothing out of the ordinary seems to be happening and when we are struggling with all the usual difficulties of the world?

When you consider the Timeless Truth: "we can be confident and assured that God is working out His purposes and promises in our lives and in the world. You have to consider, what's your part?" How can you see God possibly showing you your part or your next part?

Think back on our study of Ruth (maybe flip back to your homework and lecture outlines). What was your key takeaway from the story of Ruth?

Think back on our study of Esther (maybe flip back to your homework and lecture outlines). What was your key takeaway from the story of Esther?