

The Unexpected Calling Esther 4

We need a hero. (1-11)

We need to know our identity. (12-14)

We need to know our future is secure. (15-17)

Timeless Truth:

Our secure identity and secure eternal future give us the freedom to trust God's unexpected calling in our life.

Discussion Questions:

Who has been a hero in your life?

In our world today, what do people find their identity in outside of Jesus? In the past, what have you found your identity in outside of Jesus?

How has knowing Jesus as your Rescuer changed your identity? How does or should that identity change the way you live in the world?

How does knowing your secure eternal future change the way you face the unexpected events that happen in your life?

What does freedom have to do with trusting God's calling in your life?
