

Freedom: Walking in Truth

There are patterns that _____.

There is a pathway to _____.

How to walk in freedom:

"Lies are everywhere. They are more powerful, evil and destructive than we can imagine. The Truth is more powerful than lies. It is more powerful and beautiful than you can imagine and the Truth will set you free."
– Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth

Truth to Embrace:

Walking in Truth requires a _____ to reject deception and embrace the Truth.

Discussion Questions

1. Is there anything from last week's Planting Truth & Uprooting Lies section that you would like to share?
2. What stands out to you from lecture or the passage we looked at today?
3. How do you see others living enslaved to rule-following? How do you see others living enslaved to sin?
4. Can you identify patterns in your past or present that have kept you from being set free by Christ?
5. What lies or deception have you been challenged to replace with Truth?
6. How do you or can you spend time in God's Word?
7. How can we encourage one another to walk in freedom?
8. What is a next step you can take to keep in step with the Spirit?

Planting Truth & Uprooting Lies

As we finish our study, I want to encourage you with one more challenge for the week.

- Starting by thinking and praying through the areas where you struggle with lies and deception or are tempted to believe lies.
- Review the notes and Planting Truth & Uprooting Lies study you did around those areas.
- Now challenge yourself to go to your Bible and find more passages of Scripture that reveal truth to counter that lie (I encourage you to ask for help on how to dig through Scripture if this is new for you).
- Pick one or two verses to memorize as you work on replacing the lie with truth.
- Share the lies you have identified and the truths that you are planting in your heart with a trusted friend.
- Identify what next steps you need to take to continue to walk in freedom.

Freedom: Walking in Truth

There are patterns that enslave us.

There is a pathway to freedom.

How to walk in freedom:

“Lies are everywhere. They are more powerful, evil and destructive than we can imagine. The Truth is more powerful than lies. It is more powerful and beautiful than you can imagine and the Truth will set you free.”
– Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth

Truth to Embrace:

Walking in Truth requires a conscious choice to reject deception and embrace the Truth.
