Discussion Questions

1. Is there anything from last week's Planting Truth & Uprooting Lies section that you would like to share?
2. What stands out to you from lecture or the passage we looked at today?
3. Of the lies mentioned in lecture, which one(s) do you see lived out most in our world today?
4. Which lies about sin are the easiest for you to believe?
5. For those who are Christ-followers, do you struggle with the idea that God has forgiven all your sins?
6. Share about when you understood the truth of the Gospel. If you are still trying to understand the Gospel, share what you think or have thought about the Gospel in the past.
7. Where are you moving: towards sin or towards Christ? How do you know? What steps do you need to take to move in that direction?

Planting Truth & Uprooting Lies

Read Romans 6:11-18. The apostle Paul wrote the book of Romans as a letter to the people of the church of Rome. The theme of the book of Romans is the basic gospel which is God's plan of salvation for all people.

Jot down notes on the passage, specifically words or ideas that are repeated in the passage.

Questions to consider:

1. For the Christian, we are dead to sin and now alive in Christ. How can this truth impact our thinking about sin (11)?
2. What does Paul exhort us to do (12-13)? What do you think that looks like in your life?
3. How do you or could you offer yourself to God to an instrument of righteousness (18)?
4. What have you been set free from (18)?
5. What lie do you need to uproot about sin or the sin nature?
6. What truth do you need to plant about sin or being set free from sin?

The Con: Truth about Sin

Sin looks good.

Sin brings consequences and ultimately death.

Jesus came to set you free from sin.

*"The gospel is this:
We are more sinful
and flawed in ourselves than we ever dared believe,
yet at the very same
time we are more
loved and accepted
in Jesus Christ than we ever dared hope."
– Tim Keller*
