Philippians 2:1–4

¹If then there is any encouragement in Christ, if any consolation of love, if any fellowship with the Spirit, if any affection and mercy, ²fulfill my joy by thinking the same way, having the same love, sharing the same feelings, focusing on one goal. ³Do nothing out of rivalry or conceit, but in humility consider others as more important than yourselves. ⁴Everyone should look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of others.
