

GOD MOMENTS

Luke 19:28-44

The Entry: Jesus presents himself as king.

The Sorrow: Jesus predicts Jerusalem's destruction.

MY APPLICATION

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family, friends, or small group.

1. What was the purpose of Jesus' entry into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday? (See Zechariah 9:9-10; Psalm 118:25-27.) What did Jesus want everyone in Jerusalem to know about him?
2. How could the crowd go from shouting, "Blessed is the king of Israel." to "Crucify him." in just a few days? (See John 12:13; Mark 15:12-15.) What happens when we have a different agenda for Jesus than he has for us? Explain.
3. Why did Jesus weep over the city? (See Luke 19:41-44.) Have you ever missed a God moment and later faced consequences?
4. What is God saying to you that you are ignoring?
