

EVERYONE IS INVITED

Mark 11:15-18; John 12:20-36

1. Breaking down barriers to Jesus (Mark 11:15-18).

The purpose of the temple is in focus.

2. The cost and invitation of Jesus (John 12:20-36).

His death that will bring life was in focus.

His dying for our salvation is also His design for us to imitate.

MY APPLICATION

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family, friends, or small group.

1. Who or what has had some of the greatest influence on your motivations in life?
2. Have you ever allowed or created a barrier in your life that keeps you from showing people how to have a relationship with God? If so, what have they been, or what are they currently?
3. What is one way you could BLESS someone this week?
4. During the message on Sunday, Mark said, "His dying for our salvation is also his design for us to imitate." What do you think that means in relationship to John 12:23-26?
5. What does it look like practically to imitate Jesus?
