

FEARLESS PARENTING

Spiritually Developing Our Kids

Deuteronomy 6:1-9

1. Our kids develop spiritually by our example.
2. Our kids develop spiritually through our shaping.
3. We shape our kids spiritually through prayer.

MY APPLICATION

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family, friends, or small group.

1. Think about the spiritual development that your parents did with you as a kid. Was it a normal part of your family routine?
2. What helps and what tends to get in the way of prioritizing the spiritual development of our own kids? How can we create space in our week to do it more consistently?
3. In Deuteronomy 6 the focus starts with the parents setting the example of love and obedience to God. How have you tried to do this in your own life?
4. Out of the ideas thought about for prioritizing spiritual development in your own life, which ones stood out to you? Choose one or two to put into practice this week.

MEMORY VERSE
