

MY APPLICATION

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family, friends, or small group.

1. As you think about your experience with the pandemic over the last year, what have you learned about yourself and the way you live your life? As we emerge from the pandemic, how much of your old life will you bring back? Have you committed to make any changes?
2. For Paul, the resurrection of Jesus was a hard reset. See Acts 26:9-11. Paul's experience with the risen Jesus changed everything. See Acts 26:12-20. Compare your experience with Paul's. Would you say that for you, the resurrection of Jesus has been a soft or a hard reset? Explain your answer.
3. When you consider the death and resurrection of Jesus, how does it force a hard reset on the way we see people? See 2 Corinthians 5:17. What are some common ways we view people, and how does the resurrection of Jesus challenge those views?
4. Scholar N.T. Wright said: "Jesus' resurrection is the beginning of God's new project, not to snatch people away from earth but to colonize earth with the life of heaven." As we begin our sermon series, Made for More: Seeing God's Special Calling For Your Life, what are you most looking forward to discovering about yourself?

---

MEMORY VERSE

"Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come!"

2 Corinthians 5:17